Authority, creativity and dependable delivery.

Dreaming Spirit is led by Uncle Mark Brown, a Bunurong and Gunditjmara Elder, artist, storyteller and cultural leader.

Since 2001, Uncle Mark has worked in Aboriginal cultural heritage. That depth of experience underpins a connected practice spanning ceremony, education, artwork, design, publications, consulting, gallery work and community projects.

Every engagement is shaped around Country, cultural authority, purpose, audience and practical delivery requirements. Scope, fees, resources, scheduling and cultural intellectual property are agreed clearly before work begins.
